1. This application is a continuation of 09/798,455 (now abandoned). This application currently has claims identical to its parent application. The parent application claims were rejected. No response to the rejection has been received in either the parent or current application. The current claims are therefore identically rejected to the parent application claims.

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 10-28 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type-double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,196,459. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because all the currently claimed limitations are found within the Patent claims, only reworded. Patent claim 1 discloses the personalization server that responds to requests from a personalization server, and card information associated with a card object identifier (current claim 10). Patent claim 2 discloses the services being acquired by the personalization server are data services as in current claim 11, and Patent claim 2 claims that the services are security services as in current claim 12, and patent claim 4 claims the services are support services as in current claim 13.

Patent claim 1 claims the controller interface for providing card object identifier to the personalization station interface as in current claim 14. Patent claim 5 claims the elements of current claim 15 and the means for receiving, by a personalization station, from a controller, an unique card object identifier of current claim 20. Patent claim 6 recites means for acquiring security services from a security source as in current claim 16. Patent claim 7 recites means for acquiring data from a data source as in current claim 17. Patent claim 9 recites means for providing support services as in current claim 18. The elements of current claim 21 are found within Patent claim 10. Patent claim 11 recites acquiring security services from a security source as in current claim 22. Patent claim 12 recites acquiring data from a data source as in current claim 23. Patent claim 13 recites that the data source is the card issuer management system as in current claim 24. Patent claim 14 recites the instructions fro providing support services as in current claim 25. Patent claims 15 and 16 recite the limitations of current claims 26 and 27 respectively. Patent claim 17 recites that the personalization server acquires services from one or more resources in response to a request from one of the personalization stations as in current claim 28.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2876

5. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Linden 4,827,425. Linden discloses a card personalization that acquires data regarding an individual card from a database and places the information on the card.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Rust et al 4,825,054 discloses a card personalization apparatus.

7. This is a continuation of applicant's earlier Application No. 09/798,455. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
